

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. But when large companies control the airwaves, we get more of what's good for the bottom line and less of what we need for our democracy. Instead of something produced at "News Central" far away, it's more important that we see real people from our own communities and more substantive news about issues that matter.

Sinclair's actions point out the terrible consequences we the little people pay for not being multi-million dollar conglomerates. We have no voice now. YOU, the FCC are to be our voice to these companies. DO YOUR JOB. Stop this clearly unfair action! Thank you.
